

The Center for Human Rights Presents Living in the Intersections

“Living in the Intersections” will explore diverse issues and discuss strategies through an intersectional lens that will enhance inclusion on York’s campuses.

Join us for the following sessions!

In Celebration of the International Day of Persons with Disabilities

Antiracist and Anticolonial Approaches to Mental Health Strategies

Dr. Rachel Gorman

Thursday
December 1, 2016

1:00 - 2:30pm
280A York Lanes

Racism & the University: Voices from Muslim Women

Speaker to be Announced

Wednesday
February 15, 2017

1:00 - 2:30pm
To be Announced

For more information about the talkshop series, please email jglean@yorku.ca, and for any accommodation related requests, please contact jtcheng@yorku.ca