

Join York University as we Celebrate Black History Month with a Special Event

McLaughlin College Art Gallery is proud to host the Multicultural Historical Society of Ontario Exhibit

MANY RIVERS TO CROSS

The African-Canadian Experience

February 4 – February 28, 2019
Monday – Friday 9 am – 6 pm
McLaughlin College Art Gallery,
Room 001 McLaughlin College
4700 Keele St., York University

"This exhibition attempts to convey an impression of the place that those of African descent have long occupied in the Canadian mosaic. It deals with immigration, culture, the struggle for justice, and work, all in the context of a complex and supportive community life".

If you wish to bring a class or a group, please contact
Vicky Carnevale at 416-736-2100 x: 33824 or vcarneva@yorku.ca

This event is co-sponsored by:

Race, Inclusion and Supportive Environments (RISE); Centre for Human Rights, Equity and Inclusion (REI) and McLaughlin College

RESPECT | EQUITY | DIVERSITY | INCLUSION
Centre for Human Rights,
Equity and Inclusion (REI)